

Hinckley Township Parks

Hinckley Township is fortunate to have several parks within its borders. First and largest is Hinckley Reservation of the Cleveland Metropark System. It consists of 2000 acres with forests, lakes and trails. In the center of the town are the Commons and Brongers Park with the war memorial, a lake, shelter and trails. On West 130th Street is the Kobak Fields Baseball Complex that is operated in cooperation with the Recreational Association of Highland (RAH). On the eastern edge of the township is the Rising Valley Park. It consists of sports fields, shelters, woods, trails and extensive wetlands.

Although this web site is the official site for Hinckley Township, it is for informational purposes only. It is not the official record of Hinckley Township; the official records are maintained at the Administration Building.
